Motorcycles are Everywhere

“I’ve ordered and re-ordered pens, koozies, and sunglasses over the past 3+ years, and have always been happy with their design process (with changes I’ve made to proofs), their pricing and shipping... I Highly recommend trying them out.”

— Paul W. Cote

“Check Twice Signs” mission is to honor and create awareness of bike riders and help reduce motorcycle accidents, injuries and fatalities. Creators Bob Doiron and Paul W. Cote teamed up in 1982 and came up with the idea to print stickers to remind others on the road that “Motorcycles are Everywhere”. They later partnered with the Massachusetts Motorcyclists Survivor’s Fund and the bright yellow stickers can now be found on cars, trucks and trailers everywhere. In 2014, “Check Twice Signs” partnered with Charlie St. Clair and Laconia Bike Week to create a reunion-type event and honor longtime riders who have a history of promoting the cause.

Bob passed away in 2016; Paul honors his passing and continues the tradition of giving the yellow stickers free of charge to those he encounters in his travels. Find out more about the mission and see how you can get a sticker mailed to you at www.checktwice-savealife.com
