ABOUT US —

For nearly 3 decades, our mission has been to empower customers to share their message and create lasting impressions. The Fall season brings many events where our thousands of decorated products play an important role in representing local companies, schools and organizations with their messaging.

For nearly 3 decades, our mission has been to empower customers to share their message and create lasting impressions.

The Fall is in many ways, the “back-to-work” season where many groups have reengaged after their summer lull. This time of year supports product types of all sorts – whether it’s the ramp up of school-focused gear to support football or enrollment, cafes and gift shops ordering mugs and sweatshirts for cool weather swag, or local businesses restocking uniforms and giveaways. DiscountMugs has successfully supported this Fall surge for years by providing a wide assortment of affordable, high-quality printed items – coupled with white-glove customer service.

Decoration quality is of utmost importance to us, and our goal is to help present your brand in the best way possible while meeting your budget. Embroidery is one of the most distinctive decoration techniques for apparel messaging. Especially designed to enhance visual appeal, your design is first digitized, then meticulously sewn with high density stitches, and closely inspected by our seasoned embroidery team to confirm the quality production of your logo or message.

This method is highly recommended for polos, t-shirts and bags. Ideal for work and school uniforms, embroidery allows for more thread colors per design to account for shading and logo complexity.

We look forward to the opportunity to show you what we can do – go ahead, open up our Design Lab, and create your custom-messaged product with us!

“Discount Mugs has made it so easy for me to customize gifts personally. They have such an array of items to choose from, too! As a creative, I always want to add a special flare to everything. Their easy design process allows me not just to do that, but at an impressive level.

The quality is next to none! I know when I order something, it will arrive better than expected with a dedicated customer service team that will back their product as well as their client.”

About our happy client

Ashton Kelly is a hopeless romantic whose love for photography inspired her to start her own business in September of 2011. In an effort to best serve the couples she caters to, she started The Ashton Kelly Photography Retreat – a workshop where other wedding industry professionals are exposed to modern content and tools, so they can in turn continue to push and believe in themselves. Centered around motivation, creativity and education, her goal is to introduce guests to new people, places, and opportunities to help them grow.

TESTIMONY

“I’ve been using DiscountMugs for longer than I can remember. Their vast array of products and quality workmanship keep me coming back. The competitive pricing doesn’t hurt either. As a visual person, their design lab allows me to see how my product will look before ordering and that’s a major bonus.

Hearing from my customers that they can’t live without their campfire mug makes my heart sing and all thanks to DiscountMugs.”

About “Beer is Ok”

An Oklahoma native, Brian Welzbacher was inspired by the shape of the Oklahoma Panhandle to create beer bottle openers that would in turn help promote a community of local beer crafters. “Beer Is OK” has grown into a collective of products, podcasts and blogs that support local brewers and bring people together through the love of beer. The initiative has also expanded to include branded apparel, hats, barware, stickers and other accessories.
